

LIFESTYLE: WHAT'S ON HK

Your Insider Look At Art Central 2023: What To Expect & Our Favourites

Save

21 MARCH, 2023

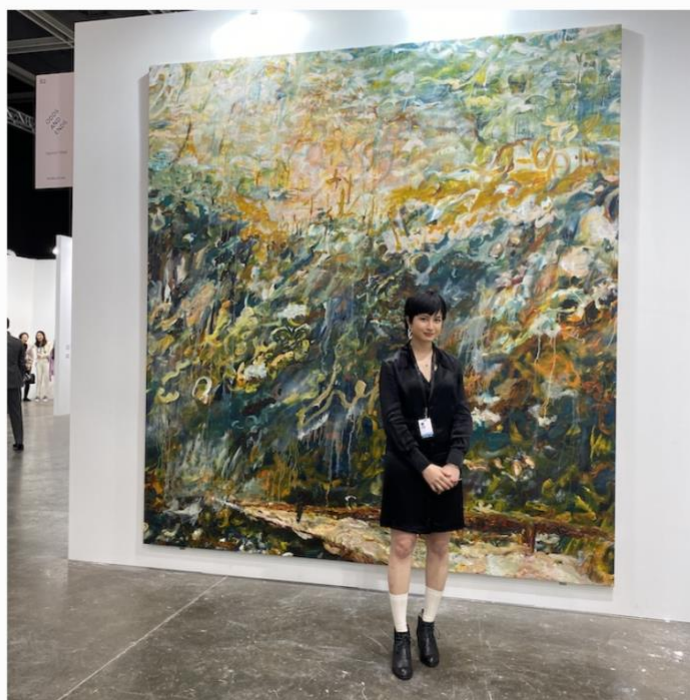

SHARE

Here's your ultimate guide to Art Central 2023, with everything to know, the exhibitions, galleries and artists to keep an eye out for and our favourite exhibitions to check out.

It's Hong Kong Arts Month, and we've been waiting for the return of the city's biggest art-

SHARE

Duk Dak – Sammi Mak, presented by Odds and Ends, Hong Kong, Booth B2

Duk Dak Solo Presentations are named after a Cantonese phrase that means “individually special”. Booths with this label are showcasing solo artist projects, featuring emerging and established talent presented by their representing galleries.

We had to stop by Odds and Ends (Booth B2) to check out London-based Hong Kong artist Sammi Mak’s beautiful presentation of abstract landscapes – inspired by the works of Ancient Greek artist Sappho. See if you can spot lines of poetry or words and characters in the pieces, that range from smaller palm-sized works to large-scale canvas.

Read More: 11 Relatively New LGBTQI+ Books To Read This Pride Month
